RHINE VALLEY CITIES

Köln

A lively, cosmopolitan city, Köln is famous for its magnificent Gothic cathedral which took more than 600 years to complete. Climb the south tower for a splendid view of the bustling city centre with its Romanesque churches and the impressive Römisch-Germanisches Museum. A visit to the Chocolate Museum with its freshly-stocked chocolate fountain, production line and shop is not to be missed. Gain an insight into the history and ever-changing face of sport at the neighbouring German Sports and Olympic Museum. Enjoy a breath-taking view of the City from the top of the Panorama Köln Triangle, with free admission for under 13's.
